SEPTEMBER
1970

Dear Friends,

The headlines on this pleasant, sunny August morning read: "Seven Trippers die in Motorway Crash." Not very pleasant reading for the Breakfast table. My mind cannot help thinking that I will be cruising down two of our motorways next week with the family. The lorries and heavy road construction vehicles that continually make the Manse shudder also remind me of the fact that very soon we will have our own 'Motorway' the M62.

It's very easy to dismiss the facts of road casualties as just one of the consequences of living in this motor age. Sometimes I get the horrible feeling that we are taking the easy way out of a problem which is as acute as ever. A few weeks ago the whole of Lancashire and the rest of the country felt the tragic blow of the Dan-Air Crash - over 100 dead. More than one person has hinted that they will never fly, if they can avoid it. In an average week, at least 100 people are killed on our roads in this country. There is no memorial service for them, and very few facts come before the public eye.

Do we in the churches care about things like this? More pressure could be put on M.P.'s and Local Councillors and the Police. The plea to instal central safety barriers along all motorways and major roads seems a logical one, since mortality rates in 'cross-over' crashes are very high. The seven dead may have been still living had such barriers been in existence.

There is also a very real point to be made about putting our Christianity into practice. As individuals, we are always saying that we should practice what we preach. This would apply just as much while we are driving a car, as having a bath, or entertaining guests, or cheering the home team, or anything else, for that matter. And yet, sometimes we can be different people in cars. We can exhibit selfishness, one-upmanship; we can plead innocence when we are just as much to blame; we can act like maniacs in the face of fellowmaniacs! Courtesy, forgiveness, pleasantness, responsibility, mercy, should remain at the centre of all our activities, including our motoring.

This may seem like a message for Motorists! It's really for us all: Having a high regard for our neighbour is basic, practical Christianity.

Yours sincerely,

Glyn Jenkins

HOLY BAPTISM

At St. Stephen's on Sunday August 2nd 1970, our Minister officiating.

AMANDA JANE WILSON AND LISA MELANIE WILSON, daughters of Mr. & Mrs. P. Wilson of 7 Rathbone Street, Rochdale.

TIMOTHY MILLS, son of Mr. & Mrs. P. Mills of 39 Albert Street, Shaw.

IN MEMORIAM

JANET LANDIMORE of 4 Pine Street, Newhey on Friday 7th August at home, aged 80. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. J. Halfpenny on 12th August.

Our sympathy to Mrs. A. Wood and all the family.

THOMAS BESWICK PARKINSON of 31 Sherriff Street, on Friday 14th August in hospital, aged 75. The funeral service was conducted by our minister on 19th August. Mr. Parkinson was a member of St. Stephen's and our sympathy is extended to Mrs. Parkinson and the relatives.

DODDERERS AND TODDLERS AT TOD

In glorious sunshine Littleborough and Milnrow congregations had a joint family church outing on 1st August to Todmorden Park.

Games and races were organised for young and "old" while the toddlers romped around the playground. A special THANK YOU goes to all the "chauffeurs."

LAND OF HIS FATHERS

The Rev. Glyn Jenkins, the famous preacher and bard from the Fylde Coast spoke to the Ladies Guild recently about "Wales and Her Music." He was so marvellous, man, that he had the ladies singing Welsh Hymns in the epilogue.

WOMEN'S GUILD - BURY & ROCHDALE DISTRICT

RALLY AT RADCLIFFE, WEDNESDAY, 30th SEPT. at 3.0 p.m.

We shall be travelling by rail from Milnrow at 1.23 p. to Radcliffe (Black Lane) at a cost of 3/9 return. Afternoon tea will be served after the meeting at 2/- per head.

It is most important that all ladies wishing to go give their names to Mrs. C. Hey not later than 13th September, so that the Radcliffe ladies can arrange catering before their holidays.

evening held at the home of Mrs. Francis Whitworth raised over £9 for the Modernisation Fund.

"NO" TO ONE PERCENT

Although the Congregational Church of England and Wales is organising a 1% appeal for world hunger, the Church Meeting has voted not to join in. Instead there will be a special collection for Christian Aid on HARVEST SUNDAY when envelopes will be placed in Hymn books.

"ENTITLED TO SHARE"

The Junior Church are preparing a special festival service for HARVEST based on the theme of God's natural gifts in creation.

There will be three displays:

1. Fruit & Flowers - Beginners & Primary.
2. Vegetables & Grain - Juniors
3. Liquids & Minerals (Not "pop") - Seniors.

You are invited to give towards these displays on Sunday morning 20th September, not, as in previous years on the Saturday. Items for section 3 include rocks, tin, oil, gold, silver, cotton, rubber, coffee platignum, mercury and uranium. If you have anything of interest in this category please tell Mr. Wild or Mr. Jenkins who will be glad to borrow them from you.

Please help us to make this display a real thanksgiving to God.

DISTRIBUTION OF GIFTS: This will take place on Monday Sept. 21st from 6.30 p.m. Children and parents are invited to share in this. The organisation will be done through areas of the care scheme. If you know of people who live in your area who would welcome gifts, please let the deacons know.

NATIONAL CHILDRENS HOME

Thank you to the 7 volunteers who recently collected over £20 in a house-to-house collection for the National Children's Home.

LADIES IN THE NOISE

After a doubtful damp start the Ladies Guild Outing to Bridlington turned out a winner in every respect. The weather was lovely and so were the meals. Some went for a sail, some for a ride in a Landau, some inevitably went shop gazing, while some just walked or sat on the promenade. Not a grouse was heard all day. There was hearty singing of various qualities on both journeys in which the driver also joined, with certain cabaret items performed in the aisle to the amusement and enjoyment of all, and a good time was had by all. (Now for the Christmas Party!)

Thanks to the Guild Secretary Mrs. A. Stott for the arrangements.

LADIES IN THE QUIETNESS

32 Ladies attended the August Guild Meeting which was presided over by Mrs. C. Hill who read from "In the Quietness". A birthday supper of patty, peas, and cakes followed, provided by the ladies whose birthdays are in July August and September. Mrs. Cockcroft thanked them for their hospitality and Mrs. Chadwick responded.

OUR SERVICE

The Minister says "Let us stand to worship God"
We sing the opening hymn and then we say the Lords Prayer.

Then someone reads from the Bible.

Mr. Gryfis gives the notices, and then we sing another hymn.

Then the children go to their classes and the grown ups have their service.

When the bell goes we go back to Church from our classes.

We sing the closing hymn, then have coffee in the little room.

Karen Schofield..aged 10.

COFFEE EVENING AND PREVIEW OF CHRISTMAS CARDS

This was held in the schoolroom on Tuesday, 18th August. The organisers thank everyone for their support.

HOW TO GET YOUR CARDS

If you were unable to come to the Christmas Card Preview and would like to order Cards, Gifts, etc., please contact Mrs. Lightfoot or Mrs. K. Hill who will be pleased to let you see the catalogue.

Are you buying your coupons regularly?
Less than three months to the fair now.

MORE HANKY -PANKY

Mrs. Joan Law is again appealing for HANDKERCHIEVES to dress the "Hanky Girls" at the Christmas Fair.

IN THE PRIMARY

or

(E for B and Steve & Chris....Ed.)

There are four teachers in the Primary.
First the children have news time and then collection.

It is quieter in the Primary than the Juniors. Some of the teachers read stories to the children. The children listen carefully.

They learn how to arrange things.

The children talk between themselves. Some of the children don't talk much, like Steven Taylor and Christopher Simpson, they draw, about what they are having for breakfast.
